

Ferdinand Gross Becomes Bossard Deutschland GmbH

We have been part of the Bossard Group since January 2025. In January 2026, we will be taking the next logical step and changing the name of Ferdinand Gross to Bossard Deutschland GmbH.

We are here to answer your questions.

What is the new company name and when does it take effect?

The new company name is Bossard Deutschland GmbH. It will come into effect during the second half of January 2026. As soon as the name change takes effect, we will inform you.

Will contact persons, locations, and processes remain unchanged?

Yes, all contact persons, locations, and processes remain unchanged. The change of name does not affect you in any way—you can continue to rely on the usual processes and your usual team.

Are conditions, projects, or ongoing delivery agreements changing?

No, nothing will change. All existing terms and conditions, projects, and ongoing delivery agreements will remain valid and continue as usual.

Are there any changes to the website, email addresses, or digital interfaces (webshop/EDI/API)?

Our website www.schrauben-gross.com will remain accessible as usual. As part of the rebranding, email addresses will change, but all previous addresses will remain valid and will be automatically forwarded. All digital interfaces and integrations will continue to function as before.

What changes will there be legally and for existing contracts?

Legally, only the company name will change. All existing contracts, agreements, and obligations remain fully valid. No action is required on your part.

What do I need to adjust in my accounting or ERP system?

You must enter the new company name in your accounting or ERP system.

Are there any new bank details or tax numbers?

No, bank details and tax numbers remain unchanged.

How should invoices and delivery notes be issued?

Following the change of name, invoices and delivery notes will be issued with the new company name Bossard Deutschland GmbH. The address and contact persons remain unchanged.

What does the name change mean for me as a business partner in the long term?

For you as a business partner, the change of name has no impact on our collaboration. You will continue to benefit from the same products, services, and contact persons.

Who can help me with questions?
